Letter from the President

Welcome Spring! Although Spring is officially here, it's still often cold outside. Fortunately, there is a definite promise of warmer weather ahead. Though some of us have enjoyed getting out to ski or enjoy other outdoor recreation, the ISU Women's Club has been bundled up enjoying more indoor activities. From playing card games, to regular meetings for coffee hour, the ISU Club has been going strong. Some of the activities our club has had recently include: a cooking class organized by Natasha Holmes, a Glass decorating class organized by Chelsie Rauh, and Ladies Night Out organized by Alicia Tauscher. The club appreciates the time and effort that goes into planning these events and we appreciate those who can attend... which make these events so worthwhile. We also have several events coming up that we would love for you, our members, to be involved with and are highlighted in this newsletter. We look forward to seeing you all very soon at our next event.

Warmest Regards,
Jenifer Hunt
President

Club Memories

MEMBER HIGHLIGHT

MARCIA LLOYD

My husband, Arthur, was hired at ISU in 1967 to develop the Counselor Education program. Right away, I became active in the Women's Club.

My first event was the December bazaar in the West Dining Room of the Student Union (later named the Holiday Fair), featuring booths with baked goods, plants, art, and more. My husband and I created miniature paintings mounted in small frames, which were popular back then. At that time the bazaar was held in the West Dining Room of the Student Union. It was a one-day event, and we raised $800 for the Junior Woman Scholarship, which was the club's only scholarship. Over the years, we added raffles and the spring Scholarship Luncheon.

Shifting the Holiday Fair from spring to fall and involving vendors has been a great way to engage the community. It also eases the workload of the club members who are busy and working, and the pressure off so many of us who used to make sock dolls and other handmade crafts. Thanks to everyone for continuing to promote and support our ISU Women's Club. Best wishes for spring,

Marcia L. Lloyd
